Ohio Art League Local Exhibition at Central Park Apartments
May 11–August 10, 2015
Solo Exhibition by OAL member, Mitchell Lippencott

May 9, 2015 – COLUMBUS, OHIO – Embark on a journey and escape the hussle and bussle of daily life through an intriguing motivational exhibition from Ohio Art League member artist Mitchell Lippencott at Central Park Luxury Apartments. “I’m on an endless hunt for the next big adventure, and I photograph the beauty I find along the way,” says Mitchell. “This collection represents my voyages, my vision of the world around me, and my passion for all things exciting and new.”

This exhibition is free, open to the public and can be viewed May 11–August 10, 2015 in the non-traditional exhibit space of the Central Park Apartments clubhouse foyer (105 Radio City Blvd Columbus, OH 43235). Hours are: Monday–Friday 10:00 am–6:00pm, Saturday 10:00am–5:00pm, and Sunday 12:15–5:00pm.

About the Artist: Mitchell Lippencott

Mitchell Lippencott is a central Ohio based artist and landscape designer. Although best know for his nostalgic advertising-themed sign work, the majority of Mitchell's recent commissions have been custom furniture pieces.

He co-developed the Columbus Before I Die wall, performed metal work for the 'Daily Chores' public sculpture in Dublin, OH, and is currently constructing a large-scale public installation of his animated short film, Freddy the Fish Freaks Out. In the recent past, Mitchell worked as a metal sculpture and welding instructor, and apprenticed under tattoo master Horikei in Northern Japan. Mitchell is a member of Cap City Creatives and the Ohio Art League.
